The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XVIIIth Year.] THURSDAY, March 17, 1763. [Nº. 932.]

COLOGNE, November 26.

TWENTY Battalions, and 20 Squadrons, of the Prince of Conde's Division, commanded by the Marquis de Monteynard, feparated the 17th, from the Army in Heffe, and marched to the Lower Rhine. The Avant Guard arrived here laft Wednefday. Yefterday the Head-Quarters were in this Town, where they will continue till the 28th, when they will be transferred to Duffeldorff.

The Regiment of Champagne is here; Anhalt, Bavière and Vierzet, at Wefel; two Battalions of Piedmont at Cleves; one at Calcar, and the other at Rees; Bouillon, Lockman, and a Battalion of Militia at Duffeldorff; Reding at Gueldres; Arbonner at Undingen; the Royal Artillery at Neus; the Dragoons of Chapt at Cleves, and in the Neighbourhood; Flamarens at Orfoy; Schomberg at Aldkirk, and the Light Troops at Rees, Zanten and Wefel. If the Regiments were compleat, they would amount to 20,000 Men.

Paris, Nov. 22. The Proceedings in the Parliament of Provence, relative to the Jefuits, having been far from unanimous, but on the contrary attended with warm Debates; and fome of the Members having complained to the King, his Majefty hath fent a Meffage, commanding the Parliament to fend the fix Arrets they have paffed on this Matter, with the Grounds thereof, to be laid before him; and in the mean Time to fufpend the Execution of thofe Arrets.

Verfailles, Nov. 27. Since the Preliminaries were figned, it is aflured, France cedes to Spain that Part of Louifiana which is left her, in Exchange for that Part of St. Domingo which is poffeffed by Spain.

Cologne, Dec. 2. On the 18th of laft Month the flying Hofpital on the Upper Rhine was broke up, as was that here the 27th. Two-thirds of the Perfons employed in the Provifions, Forage, &c. have been difcharged. Of 4000 Horfes that tranfported Provifions to the Army, 2750 are dead this Campaign. The Artillery, belonging to the Divifion commanded by the Prince of Conde, is at Coblentz, and will be tranfported from thence by Water to Mentz; but a Brigade of Horfes belonging to it, have been fent to Neus, to draw fome Cannon that were left there.

The 28th paft Boifgelin marched hence, and the 30th Conde Cavalry and Dauphin Infantry: They were followed this Day by Limoins, Briqueville, and Part of the Head-Quarters: Champagne, Tourraine, d'Ally Royal Grenadiers Cambis, and two Battalions of Militia remain here yet.

Bruffels, Dec. 2. Marfhal d'Etrees, having been preceded by the Prince of Conde, went through this City on Tuefday laft, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, coming from the Army in their Way to Paris. About Noon Part of their Baggage arrived here, and moved on the next Day for Paris.

Liege, Dec. 3. This Day Boifgelin of four Battalions entered the Fauxbourgs of this City. They had demanded Quarters for 670 Men per Battalion, though the whole Regiment did not amount to 1400 effective Men. They are to be in Garrifon at Valenciennes.

LONDON.

Nov. 30. Orders are given for Ten of the oldeft Men out of each Company of the Foot-Guards to be draughted; thofe that fhall be found fit for Service are to be fent to Garrifon, and the Reft will be properly provided for.

Extract of a Letter from his Majefty's Ship Vanguard, in Baſque Road, November 5, 1762.

"A Lieutenant of the Fame, and fome others, under Command of Lieutenant Thompfon of the Bellona, have attacked two Veffels in the Shallops, under the Caftle of Chazillon, and gallantly boarding both grounded, brought them off in the Face of the Enemy, not Musket fhot from the fhore. Greater Bravery could not be fhewn on our Part, nor more Puſillanimity on their's. Was not for a Skirmifh of this kind fometimes, for this while, we fhould almoft forget we have Arms: Ballotts are rarely attended to, but you may believe me, Sir, when I aſſure you this Squadron might be employed with more Honour, and Service to England, than confining nine French unſerviceable Wrecks."

Dec. 4. An Action is brought againſt a Rev. Divine, and the two Church Wardens of a Pariſh, for ſpending the greateſt Part of the Money they had collected for a Brief.

We are informed the King of Portugal has wrote a Letter to his Majeſty, couched in the moſt polite and moſt thankful Terms, for the Security derived to his Kingdom, from the Generoſity and Magnanimity of the Britiſh Nation.

The whole Stores taken in Caſſel, may be reckoned worth upwards of a Million of German Crowns.

By the ſudden Diſcharge of great Numbers of Ship-wrights, and other Handicrafts, at the End of the laſt War, who were thus, many of them, greatly diſtreſſed, the French and Spaniſh Agents engaged many of them, and theſe the beſt they could pick out, to go over to thoſe Countries, by which Means they were enabled to build the Fleets with which they threatened us at the Beginning of the War.—If the ſame Method ſhould be purſued now, there is no Doubt they will play over the ſame Trick again; but if a Few Thouſand Pounds were given in ſmall Penſions to ſuch as are diſcharged, till they could fix properly in Buſineſs in private Yards, &c. it would probably keep them at Home, and the Money would not be thrown away.

Dec. 5. Sixty of the Officers who were at Pondicherry have tranſmitted to M. Bertin, Comptroller General of the Finances, a Memorial, containing Nine Articles of Impeachment againſt General Lally, late Governor of that Place: The firſt turns upon his bad Adminiſtration, and is cognizable by the King's Council; the ſecond regards military Matters, and will be referred to the Judgment of the Marſhals of France; and all the reſt are to be enquired into by Commiſſaries, whom the King will appoint for the Purpoſe.

Yeſterday, at a Meeting of Merchants trading to Africa, it was reſolved, that the following Gentlemen be appointed a Committee, for drawing up a Memorial to the Lords of Trade, againſt Mr. Touchet's Petition to his Majeſty, for an excluſive Trade to the River Senegal, viz. Mr. Alderman Turner, John Largent, Anthony Bacon, John Ewer, James Johnſon, William Tennant, John Mill, Gilbert Franklyn, Samuel Vaughan, William Bowden, George Farquhar Kirkoch, and Beeſton Long, Eſquires.

We are informed, that the Saxon Troops, which made a Part of the French Army, are to be put into the Pay of the Empreſs Queen.

The Soldiers who were made Priſoners in going from North-America, to the Havannah, and carried to France, are arrived at Portſmouth in Tranſports.

Yeſterday Morning arrived a Mail from Liſbon, and with it a Packet from Count La Lippe, and the other General Officers, and we are aſſured, that the Spaniards are entirely withdrawn out of Portugal; and that there was nothing but Joy in the Faces of all the Portugueſe, and a general Senſe of Gratitude, expreſſed by the Thinking Part of the Nation, for his Britannic Majeſty's kind Interpoſition in their Favour. It is from this Conſideration we hope the Trade with that Kingdom will be much more in our Favour than it has been for ſeveral Years paſt.

A Liſt of all the Ships ordered to be laid up in ordinary at Portſmouth.

100 Guns, Royal Sovereign.

90 Guns, Neptune, Namur, Sandwich, St. George.

80 Guns, Princeſs Amelia, Newark.

74 Guns, Royal William, Arrogant, Bellona, Centaur, Lenox, Mars, Monarch, Shrewſbury, Terrible, Valiant.

70 Guns, Dorſetſhire, Grafton, Northumberland, Swiftſure.

66 Guns, Marlborough, Lancaſter, Alcide, Bellipuan, Kent, Modeſte, Alfred, building, 64 Guns, new and new built.

60 and 50 Guns, Achilles, Arrow, Deptford, Dunkirk, Firm, Montagu, Orford, Rainbow, Chatham, Preſton, Warwick, building.

Frigates, Rainbow, Pallas, Bolton, Diana, Lark, Leoſtoffe, Quebec, Niger, Veſtal, Richmond.

32 Guns, a new Hull, Active, Lizard, Maidſtone.

28 Guns, New New Caſtle, Ludlow Caſtle, Alborough, Gibraltar, Glaſgow, Kennington.

Sloops, Alderney, Beaver, Ferret, Trial, Vulture, Northam.

With 17 now in ordinary already.

Dec. 7. They write from Madrid of the 9th of laſt Month, that ſome Perſons pretend to know, that his Catholic Majeſty ſtrongly inſiſts on being indemnified for Part of the Charges he has been put to by the Portugal War, and that the Produce of ſuch Indemnification will be employed in redeeming the Men of War taken at the Havannah.

Dec. 8. On Monday the Royal Union, Smith, cleared out for Dieppe, in France, being the firſt Ship for that Port ſince the ſigning of the Preliminaries.

Private Letters from Paris adviſe, that a moſt ſincere and general Joy has been ſpread through the Nation, not by the Peace only, which renders new Taxes unneceſſary, but by a Report that the King has taken a Reſolution to aboliſh the Farms of the Revenue; and to have all Taxes collected by his own Officers, as in England; which, beſides other great Advantages, will reduce the Price of Salt, Tobacco, the Duties of Exports and Imports, and, in general, all Kinds of Liquors, Goods and Proviſions, one fourth Part.

The Spaniſh Ambaſſador, we are informed, moſt ſtrenuouſly endeavoured, in the Negotiations, to obtain the Ships taken at the Havannah, at any Price, or by ceding to us any Advantages in their Colonies or Settlements, which we could reaſonably aſk; but all was rejected.

They write from Paris, that beſides the twelve Officers who were lately executed, there are three more who will ſoon undergo the ſame Fate, for delivering up Canada to the Engliſh.

Dec. 9. Yeſterday the Merchants trading to the conquered Iſlands, carried up their Petition to the Secretary of State's Office, in Order to be laid before his Majeſty's Council; praying that they may have a farther Time to get in their Effects, and ſettle their Affairs, than what is allowed them by the Preliminary Articles, before thoſe Iſlands are reſtored.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, Eſq; reſigned his Place at Secretary at War, as did alſo John Offley, Eſq; that of one of the Grooms of his Majeſty's Bedchamber.

We hear that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York and Sir Charles Hardy are gone to Cruiſe off the Canary Iſlands, and will lay there to the utmoſt Time the Preliminary Articles will allow; as there are ſome rich Ships ſtill expected home belonging to the French and Spaniards.

On Tueſday they began to deliver out at the Secretary of State's Office, Paſſports, ſigned by the French King, for our Ships to go Title to any Port in France. The Paſſports from Spain are not yet arrived.

By a Gentleman arrived from Paris on Thurſday Evening we are informed, that when the Preliminaries were brought to his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to be ratified, he was juſt returned from Hunting, but that he ſigned them immediately, before he ſat down to Dinner, or even as much as pulled off his Boots.—Couriers were then inſtantly diſpatched to all Parts, and it is impoſſible, ſays the Gentleman, to expreſs the Joy that appears here, among all Ranks and Degrees of People.

There are ſeveral Letters in Town, from Perſons of Credit, which give moſt dreadful Accounts of the Situation of the Dutch Affairs in the Iſland of Ceylon, where they are likely to be driven down. It ſeems they had loſt the Love of the Kings very much, who thereupon aſſembled his People in the Centre of the Iſland, and made them, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, to take the Oath of the Dutch, or die; and accordingly many ſubmitted the coaſtal Forts, moſt of which, by Storm, and put all to the Sword; and ſo they did at Columbo, the chief Capital; but at Point de Galle, they found ſtrong Arms, they ſelves into the Fort, and defended themſelves to Death. And ſo on their Paſſage to Batavia. In ſhort, they are determined to extirpate the Dutch, and have invited our People to come and settle; but how far we shall comply with their Requests is yet unknown.

A Letter from Dantzick, says, we have received the following Account from Konigsberg: A Tradesman of that Town being ill used by some Russian Soldiers, set on by one of their Officers who had been refused Something he asked, and the Tradesman dying of the Blows he received, the Mob rose to be revenged on the Russians. The Insurrection continued three Days, and several were killed on both Sides. At Length Field Marshal Lehwald, and the commanding Officer of the Russians appeased the Town's People, but not without Difficulty, by imprisoning the Officers who had occasioned the Riot.

Yesterday a Cause was tried at the Common-Pleas, Westminster, wherein a Merchant of London was Plaintiff, and a Baronet Defendant; the Action was brought against the Defendant, for winning a Sum of Money of the Plaintiff at Gaming, and a Verdict given for the Plaintiff, for 700 l. Damages, besides Cost of Suit.

London, Nov. 30. On Thursday the 18th Instant was married at Ealand, John Mason, Widower, aged 75, to Elizabeth Armitage, Widow, aged 79, of Ealand Workhouse, where they had contracted a very intimate Acquaintance. They were brought from the Workhouse, to Church in a Post-Chaise, with suitable Attendance; from whence they adjourned to the Parish-Clerk's, where they dined with the Town Officers, and other principal Inhabitants. After Dinner the Bride walked a Minuet with one of the Attendants, as did also the Bridegroom with a young Woman of the Neighbourhood; and to shew his extraordinary Agility, he would afterwards divert the Company by dancing a Hornpipe. They were both very thankful to the present Overseers for permitting them to be Married, for (as the Bride expressed it) They had better be Married than do worse.

Liverpool, Dec. 3. On Tuesday last, three Seamen were taken up, and committed by the Justices of the Peace, and ordered to be carried to Lancaster Castle, to take their Trials at the ensuing Assizes, for attempting to raise a Riot. They were at the Head of a Mob beating a Drum round the Docks, and proclaimed, "That no English Seamen must "engage in any Vessel under Forty Shillings "Wages per Month; and if Foreigners presumed "to ship themselves for less Money, they should "not be suffered to leave the Town alive." Several considerable Merchants meeting with the Mob, reasoned with them and pointed out the Risk they ran by such unlawful Riots, in open Violation of the Laws, &c. The Seamen gave for Answer, That they might as well be hang'd as starv'd by the Terms of the Peace. The three Seamen made their Escape at Magull, near Ormskirk, as they were on the Road to Lancaster, occasioned by a Concourse of People assembled at Magull Wake, baiting a Bull, &c. whom the Seamen influenced to surround the Gooler and his Assistants, while they tumbled off their Horses, though Handcuffed, and ran away. A considerable Reward is offered for the taking of the three Seamen, or any others concerned; and the Magistrates and Merchants are determined to suppress all such-like Riots.

KINGSTON (in Jamaica) October 30.

Monday arrived His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, Charles Webber, Esq; Commander, in which came Passengers Captain John Darby, late Commander of the Charming Polly, belonging to George Paplay, Esq; who had contracted with the Government for bringing up His Majesty's Troops belonging to this Station from the Havannah, which Port they left the 25th ult. having on board Captain Fleming, Lieutenants M'Guire and Guilford, and 150 Rank and File. About the Ninth Instant (being then off the Isle of Pines) some of the People going privately down to draw Rum, and not taking proper Care of the Candle they carried with them for that Purpose, unfortunately set Fire thereto; the Flames instantly communicated to the Vessel, which, in a short Time, was entirely destroyed. Captains Fleming and Darby, with about ten others, were saved in the Brigantine's Boat. Dr. Loch, and Mr. John Garrigues, Ensign in the 46th, lived about three days by swimming; and notwithstanding the extraordinary Humanity, Vigilance, and Activity of Captain Webber, his Officers and Seamen, 84 lost their Lives by this unfortunate Event, among whom were the two Subaltern Officers, M'Guire and Guilford, and Mr. Joseph Jolley, Ensign in the 57th Regiment of Foot, Brother to Mr. Jolley, who was coming Passenger to see his Brother, and who was coming Passenger to see his Brother, and who was coming Passenger

Charles Town (in South Carolina) [illegible]

The Schooner [illegible] of and for this Port from Providence, Thomas Mackilish, Master, was taken on the 14th ult. in 13 Fathom Water, off South Edisto, by the Privateer Sloop Santa Maria, Don Martin d'Hamaffa, Commander, and sunk the same Day, after being stripped of her Sails, Rigging, and every Thing that could be of any Use to the Spaniards.

The Brigantine taken by the same Privateer on the 21st ult. off Shubrick's Island, was the Portsmouth (a Letter of Marque of ten 4 Pounders, with 15 Men) Christopher Burdon Master, from Antigua for this Port: Captain Burdon was killed by a Shot from the Privateer, but the Brig made no Defence: She is since cast away on Long Island, near Frederica in Georgia, and beat to Pieces; eight Spaniards that were on board the Brig were secured by Mr. Sweetenham, the Commanding Officer at Frederica.

The Schooner General Wolfe, George Higgins late Master, taken by the same Privateer, with her whole Cargo of Indigo, Sugars, &c. was likewise lost, at the Matanzas, near St. Augustine, and three Spaniards drowned; so that of all the Prizes Don Martin made during his last Cruize upon this Coast, he carried in with him to St. Augustine (where he arrived on the 13th Inst. after being three Days kept off the Bar by contrary Winds) only the Sloop Adventure, John Simonton Master.

Another Privateer belonging to St. Augustine (a small Schooner of six 3 Pounders) has not been more successful than Don Martin, having taken several Prizes, not one of which had arrived. The Schooner Charming Sally, of and from New-York for Havannah, Launcelot Lawrence late Master, which missed her Way to St. Augustine, and got in here the 23d of November last, was one; a Schooner, which in like Manner got into North-Carolina, another; and the Sloop Sally, Robert Saunders, from Barbados for Maryland, taken off Cape Hatteras, the 4th of November, a third. About three Weeks ago, the said Schooner again sailed from St. Augustine (as was said) for Cuba, to look for the Prizes she had taken; but it is imagined she is cruizing upon this Coast. We are informed, that the Commander of this Privateer is very unfit for the Business, and will not attempt any Vessel that makes a Shew of fighting.

Twenty-three Prisoners taken by the above Privateers, among them Captain Mackilish, Captain Launcelot Lawrence, and Captain Burdon's Mate, arrived here last Tuesday in a Schooner from St. Augustine, purchased there for that Purpose by Mr. Fish, who treated them all with great Kindness and Humanity. The Day before they came in, they discovered a Schooner off St. Helena, which they believe to be the Privateer last mentioned above.

These Prisoners say, that two or three Vessels had lately arrived at St. Augustine from La Vera Cruz, with about 2000 Barrels of Flour, and some other Provisions, without which Supply the Garrison would have been in a starving Condition, and with it are still in very great Distress; but they daily expected more Vessels from La Vera Cruz. That the Pay-Sloop was gone for Porto-Rico. That none of our Men of War had been seen off that Place since the Bonetta, though any one of them cruizing before that Bar might stop every Thing from going in, and prevent any Privateers coming out. That a very small Schooner of about six Guns, had finished careening the Day before they left Augustine, which might possibly come this Way, though the Spaniards pretended she was going directly to La Vera Cruz. And that three other Privateers were fitting out there, viz. a small Northward-built Brig, mounting 10 Guns, taken out of Simonton's Sloop; Don Martin's Sloop, of 8 Guns; and a small Bermuda-built Sloop of 10; the last they imagine may be at Sea in a Fortnight from this Time, and the others in about 3 Weeks.

BOSTON.

Feb. 7. Last Wednesday arrived here Captain Hayter, in a Schooner, in 20 Days from the Havannah. The Duties upon a small Cargo which he carried there, amounted to upwards of 1200 Dollars.

NEW YORK, February 17.

On Saturday last was sent in here by the Privateer Brig Mars, Capt. Wright, and Capt. Johnson, both of this Port, the Ship Vigilante, Charles Lacour, Master, from Rochelle for St. Domingo, with a Cargo of Wine, Flour, and Dry Goods, taken the 16th of January, off Mount Christo.

She is said to have a Pass signed by the Earl of Egremont, and like that she has a French Letter of Marque, so that her Condemnation is doubtful.

The Sloop Little Sally, Capt. Clarke, from this Place for the West-Indies, [illegible] was foundered [illegible] Hours after the [illegible] Hatteras. The Crew were providentially taken up by Capt. George Tucker, and carried to Jamaica.

[illegible] Friday Night last came to Town from Rhode-Island, the Cockle [illegible] Letter Sloop Bonetta, Captain Spalling, of this Port, who informs us, That about Ten Days before Christmas they fell in with a French Privateer, commanded by one L'Etach, of 24 Guns, and 120 Men, whom they engaged for several Hours, in which Time Capt. Spalling and his first Lieutenant were killed, and the Vessel greatly damaged, and by the Bonetta's Topping-lift being shot away, the Boom fell into the Sea, when the Frenchmen seized the Opportunity, boarded and took her, with the Loss of two more of Capt. Spalling's Men; the Bonetta mounted 12 Guns, and had only 60 Men, who all behaved as became Englishmen, having fired their Cannon until their Deck gave Way.

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.

From the West-India News Papers, private Letters, &c. we have an Account of the following Arrivals, viz.

From Virginia, Captains Conyer, Peart, Whitterton, Braithwaite, Brant, and Power. From Maryland, Byus, Carcaud, Stiles, and Bodder, all at Barbados.

Extract of a Letter from London, Dec. 14, 1762.

"——Those who of late exclaimed most against the Peace, begin now to alter their Sentiments: Thursday and Yesterday the Preliminaries were before the House of Commons, who, by a Majority of above 250, have agreed to address his Majesty this Day, to thank him for obtaining Terms so honourable. The Duke of N——'s Party, notwithstanding all their Bluster without Doors, made but a poor Opposition in the House, there were only 65 of them, and they, when they attempted to speak, were scarce listened to. Mr. PITT was in the House, but so bad with the Gout, that he was obliged to be supported by two of his Servants. On Thursday he spoke upwards of two Hours, and perhaps more good Sense was never spoken in the same Length of Time. Some of the Preliminary Articles he expressed his Dislike to, and others he highly approved of. Those in the Opposition were greatly disappointed, as they expected he would attack all the Measures of the Ministry.——Though he was very moderate, he appeared rather in the Opposition than otherwise."

By Captain Ashmead, from Jamaica, we have Advice, that the Britannia Privateer, Captain Robinson, of this Port, has taken four Prizes, viz. A Spanish Privateer Schooner; a Dutch Schooner, a Brig, loaded with Cocoa; and a Sloop with Sugar.

ANNAPOLIS, March 17.

TO BE RENTED,

ONE Thouſand Acres of Land, to be divided into Six Farms, and ſome Meadow Ground thereon. Three Hundred and Thirty-eight Acres of Land, to be divided into Two Farms, a great Part of which is Meadow Ground. One Hundred and Eighty Acres in One Farm, all Upland. The above Land is Woodland and very good, about 17 Miles from Baltimore-Town.

Alſo Sundry Lots to let upon Ground-Rent in Baltimore-Town. For Terms apply to BRIAN PHILPOT.

AT the repeated Solicitations of ſeveral Perſons, the OHIO COMPANY have agreed to lay off a Number of LOTS for a TOWN at Fort Cumberland, near the Mouth of Wills's Creek, on Patowmack River, in the Province of Maryland; and that each Purchaſer may have an Opportunity of attending, and chooſing the Lots he may judge moſt convenient, they will be SOLD to the Higheſt BIDDERS on Friday the 15th of April next.

Any one who will conſult the Maps muſt ſee that Fort Cumberland, from it's natural Situation and Contiguity to that very extenſive and fertile Country on the Ohio and its Waters, muſt be the Key to all that valuable Settlement; it being the higheſt and moſt convenient Landing-place for the Inhabitants on the other Side the Allegheny Mountains, on all the River Patowmack, which affords a Water-Carriage, that with a very inconſiderable Expence, might be rendered ſafe, certain and eaſy, at all Seaſons of the Year, from the Great Falls to the Spot now propoſed for a Town. It is about 75 Miles Land-Carriage to the Monongahela, which is navigable to the Ohio for flat-bottomed Boats or Battoes; and not more than 65 Miles to the Youghiogeny, where the Road is as it is at preſent cleared to Pittſburg, croſſing to which Place the Indians frequently, before the War, brought up their Battoes loaded with Skins. And all who are acquainted with the Country agree, that a very good Waggon Road may be made to that very Spot, or even a few Miles lower down the River, which would reduce the Diſtance from thence to Fort Cumberland at leaſt 15 Miles. The Land-Carriage from Prowitt's Warehouſe, at the Little Falls, which is the higheſt Tide Waters of Patowmack, to the Great Falls, does not exceed 12 Miles; and the Manufactures of Great-Britain may be tranſported by the Patowmack to the Ohio, and it's Produce or Furs remitted through the ſame Channel, with only 60 Miles Land-Carriage at the moſt.

Fort Cumberland is about 125 Miles from Prince-George 39 from Fort Bedford, 60 from Winchester, Land-Carriage, good Waggon Roads, and 200 Miles Water-Carriage from the Mouth of Conogocheague Creek in Maryland.

The Day the LOTS are Sold the OHIO Company will LET to the higheſt Bidder, for a Term of Years, Two large good Store-Houſes, oppoſite to Fort Cumberland, in Virginia, one 45 by 25, with a Counting-Room and Lodging-Room at one End, the other 44 by 20, with proper Conveniencies for a Family to live in, two Stories high each, beſides Garrets, with good dry Cellars 6 or ſix Steps below the whole Size of the Houſes; and a Kitchen, Stable for 12 Horſes, Meat-Houſe, and Dairy; there are Two good Batteaus, which will be given to the Perſon who Rents the Houſes. The whole entirely new, and will be completely finiſhed, and fit to enter upon immediately; and the Perſon who takes the Store-Houſes, may alſo have a Lot, for a Term of Years, of as much Land adjacent to them, as he chooſes. Any one deſirous to treat privately for the Store-Houſes, &c. before the Day of Sale, at the Town Lots, may know the Terms by applying to the Subſcriber, who will attend at Fort Cumberland on the 5th Day of April before-mentioned, to deliver the Purchaſers Deeds for their Lots. There is great Plenty of good Timber and Lime-Stone on the Lands, on each Side of the River; and the Company are building a Saw and Grift Mill, within a Mile of the Spot propoſed for the Town.

GEORGE MITCHELL.

Charles County, Jan. 26, 1763.
